

Welcome to Atlanta Pagan Pride Day 2017!

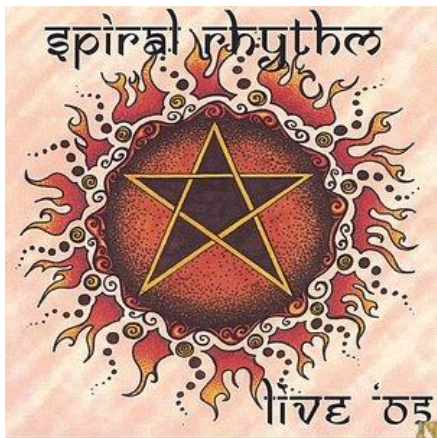

I am wishing you all a wonderful day! Today is a day to learn about, and celebrate some of the rich and diverse set of practices, traditions, belief systems which take place within the greater Atlanta area. Remember to be kind to one another. Especially in times of stress, it is important to connect with your community.

We are happily hosting a food drive for the Atlanta Community Food Bank. This is an opportunity for Atlanta pagans to share the harvest with the

Thank you for attending and for adding your positive energy to the day!

Blessings, Lady Arden

Atlanta Pagan Pride Coordinator

Entertainment, Rituals, Presentations, & Classes

10AM - Druid Ritual Structure & Ar nDraiocht Fein – Grove of the Red Earth (ADF)

This class is to show the structure and function of an ADF Druidic ritual. It will demonstrate the ritual order and the differences between ADF Druidry and other Pagan paths.

11AM- Alena Indigo Sullivan – Harvest Stories

11AM - Spells and Charms Writing – Sarah Amis

Learn to write better spells, charms and liturgy using traditional models and poetry writing techniques.

12PM - Harvest Ritual – The Grove of the Red Earth, ADF

We will be honoring harvest goddess of the three different cultures embraced by the grove. We will be giving worship to harvest goddesses from the Celtic, Greek, and Norse pantheons. The ritual consists of giving offerings to the deities invited to join us, as well as to each person's individual gods and goddesses. Everyone is invited to attend and take part. Our rituals are very participatory, with each person free to be as involved as suits individual preference. The grove will provide materials for offerings available to be used by all.

1PM – Spiral Rhythm - Music

1PM - The Patchwork Quilt: Diversity and Inclusion in the Pagan Community – Evan Barton and Sarah Amis

Since the 1950s the English-speaking world has developed a renewed interest in practicing ancient, pre-Christian spiritual traditions. Though many of these traditions are new, they often draw inspiration from mythology, folklore, and the Western Mystery Tradition. Now, “Neo-Pagan” faiths are practiced throughout Europe, the Americas, and Australasia. During this class, we will discuss the history of modern Paganism, providing a context for exploring how race, ethnicity and ancestry complicate ideas of Pagan “inclusion” and whether groups often seen as “non-Western” or with origins in non-Western parts of the world have a role within the modern Pagan community.

2PM - Dream Interpretation – Lady Morigu, House of Ravenwood

You dream, but do you know why or what it means? Would you like to learn how to use those dreams as a tool for self-discovery? Then you will want to come join us for this introductory class that looks at the different types of dreams. See how they can solve everyday problems and be a source of creativity. See how they can help you with health or emotional issues and accomplish your goals. In the workshop, we discuss what dreams are and how to work with them. We will learn how to promote vivid dreams, how to better remember them, and tips on how to record them. And, of course, we'll give you the tools so that you can know what mean and put them to productive use.

2:30PM – Arthur Hinds – Music

3PM - Wands – Gypsy Teague

Because one simply does not serve soup with a butter knife. Therefore having just one wand and expecting it to do everything is over simplification.

4PM - Shanti Jam - Music

4PM - Advice to Seekers – Lady Maia, House of Ravenwood

Are you new to world of Paganism/Wicca? Wondering how this all works and how to find a spiritual home? This class is geared to assist new folks in understanding how the community works and how to go about searching for a teacher. Guidance is given on things to look for and what to watch out for when looking for a ‘Spiritual Home’. There are also recommendations and local resources given to give the attendees a few places to look.

4PM - Mandala Stone Painting – Candace Harris

This will be hands on class where you will be able to make your own pagan tool (a mandala stone). Supplies will be provided.

5PM - Mindless Meditation – Kieran Nightstar

this is a class that focuses on the “failures” of meditation (trying to empty your mind, being completely still, and others that make people feel they “suck” at meditation). Instead, in this class, those concerns are faced, and I explain why meditation isn't about emptying your mind, and teach others that they do not “suck” at meditation. The classes will be ended with a fun, active, guided meditation.

5PM - Goddess Dance for All People of All Ages – Crystal

Come and enjoy this fun interactive dance. All people welcome!
